

I believe that XM radio represents good competition for the rest of the radio market. They should be allowed to broadcast local weather and traffic if they have a model that works. Please do not let pressure from their competition shut down this service. That would be a disservice to the market and illegal market protection.